Announcements
We welcome Rev. Bleyenberg and his wife Deb to our pulpit and fellowship today and next Sunday. Andrew Kuiper and Jerron Van Egdom appeared before the consistory to make confession of their faith. Both young men expressed their faith in Jesus Christ and their agreement with the truth of God’s Word as taught in our church. With thanks to God, the consistory approved their confessions and, barring any lawful objections, scheduled their public confessions for June 26 in the evening service.

At the congregational meeting the call to be our next pastor was extended to Rev. Joseph Holstege. He is the pastor of Zion Protestant Reformed Church in Hudsonville, MI. He has been pastor there since October 2017. It is his first charge. Some of you may remember him from his internship at Calvary PRC a few years ago. He and his wife Lisa have two children. He is brother to our former missionary Rev. Daniel Holstege. We pray that the Lord may make His will clearly known to him concerning our call. Rev. Holstege’s contact information is as follows: 7557 12th Ave. Jenison, MI 49428, Cell: 616-550-3236, Email: joeholstege@gmail.com
